Dear Ms. Shoshana Grove, Secretary of the Commission,

The scheduled closing of the Innis Post office comes as a shock and disappointment . I grew up in Innis and have many family and friends still living there. The Innis Post Office is the center of the community and provides a great service to the people living in Innis. The closer would be a hardship to all the presently use the Post Office dailey.

Innis has always been the center of commerce and social activity for all living the Innis area including Batchelor and Lettsworth. The closure would be a death blow to the community. Please reconsider the proposed closing. Perhaps one of the small Post Offices in the area could be reviewed and possibly closed.

Sincerely

Daniel Daigrepont

Former resident of Innis, Louisiana
